The Company's Dispute Resolution Policies and Procedures

Any and all claims, disputes and controversies, whether based on contract, tort, statute, ordinance or regulation (a "claim"), directly or indirectly relating to, arising out of or in connection with Employee's employment by or with RusticCo, LLC, (the "Company"), or the termination of such employment, shall be resolved by binding arbitration in Baltimore City, Maryland. Employee and the Company agree that this policy covers any claims in which the Company is sought to be held vicariously or indirectly liable on account of any person or entity affiliated with the Company, or in which the Employee's adversary is subject to the Company's Dispute and Resolution Policies and Procedures and the dispute relates to the Employee's employment by or with the Company or the termination of that employment. Employee and the Company further agree that the Company may alter or terminate the Company's Dispute Resolution Policies and Procedures on December 31st of any year upon giving 30 calendar days written notice to Employee, provided that all claims arising before alteration or termination shall be subject to the policy and procedure in effect at the time the party asserting the claim gives written notice of the claim, pursuant to paragraph 1 set forth below. Notice of any alternation or termination of the Company's Dispute Resolution Policies and Procedures may be given by posting a written notice by December 1 of each year at the company's property. In addition, a copy of the text of any modification to the Company's Dispute Resolution Policies and Procedures will be given to the Employee.

1. Employee and the Company agree that the party asserting the claim (the "Aggrieved Party") must give written notice of any claim, that shall describe in reasonable detail the claim and the factual basis thereof, to the other party within one year of the date the Aggrieved Party first obtained knowledge of the act, matter, thing or event giving rise to the claim, or the claim shall be forever barred; provided, however, that in the event that there is a federal or state statute of limitations specifically applicable to the claim and that, by the terms of such statute or applicable law, cannot be reduced by agreement to such one year period, then such federal or state statute of limitations shall prevail, govern and control.

2. There shall be a single arbitrator, who shall be a retired member of the federal judiciary who sat on any federal court located in the Fourth Circuit or a retired member of the judiciary of the State of Maryland, in each case with expertise in deciding employment disputes. The parties shall jointly designate the arbitrator to hear the dispute, or, if the parties are unable to jointly select an arbitrator, each party shall appoint an individual with the above qualifications, who then will jointly select another individual with the above qualifications to serve as the arbitrator. The arbitrator shall determine the rights and remedies and the obligations and duties of the parties according to the substantive and procedural laws of the United States of America and/or the State of Maryland.

3. Each party may be represented in the arbitration by an attorney selected by the party. The Employee shall pay the higher of $500 or 3% of the employee's most recent annual compensation at the Company towards the cost of the arbitrator, and the Company will pay the remaining the cost of the arbitrator. Each party shall pay its own attorneys' and experts' fees and costs and all other costs and expenses incurred by the party as a result of the arbitration. The parties to the arbitration proceeding shall have the right to engage in pre-hearing exchanges of information, discovery and pre-trial motions, as if and to the same extent as allowed under the Maryland Rules of Civil Procedure. All issues regarding exchange of information and discovery shall be decided by the arbitrator. The arbitration hearing shall be conducted by the arbitrator in whatever manner the arbitrator feels will most expeditiously permit presentation of the evidence and arguments of the parties.

4. The arbitrator shall have the authority to award any remedy or grant any relief that a Federal court sitting in the State of Maryland or a Circuit Court of the State of Maryland could order or grant. The parties and the arbitrator shall maintain the confidentiality of the arbitration proceedings.

5. The arbitration award shall be rendered within 60 days from the date of the conclusion of testimony in the proceeding and shall be in the form of a reasoned written opinion (the "Opinion"). The Opinion shall find the facts of the proceeding, make conclusions of law based on such factual findings and determine the rights and remedies and the obligations and duties of the parties based thereon. Judgment upon the award may be rendered in any court of competent jurisdiction, subject to review as set forth in paragraph 6, below.

6. The arbitration award and the Opinion shall be reviewable at the request of any party by a reviewing arbitrator with the same qualifications as those set forth in paragraph 1, above, selected in accordance with the procedure set forth above, to the same extent, and as if, the arbitration award were first rendered by a Circuit Court (sitting without a jury) in the State of Maryland. A party requesting review of the Opinion must give written notice to the other party within thirty (30) days of the date of the Opinion. The reviewing arbitrator shall schedule the dates for the filing of briefs and reply briefs, if any, and the date of oral argument. The parties shall share equally the cost of the reviewing arbitrator. Each party shall pay its own attorneys' and experts' fees and costs and all other costs and expenses incurred by the party as a result of the reviewing arbitration. The reviewing arbitration award shall be rendered within 60 days from the date of the date of oral argument and shall be in the form of a reasoned written opinion, that shall be final, conclusive and binding on the parties, and judgment upon the reviewing arbitration award may be rendered in any court of competent jurisdiction.
